THE NUISANCE CASE. TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS." SIR.—In reference to the comments which you make upon the ignisdiction of the Summary Court in cases where general damages are claimed. I may perhaps be permitted to notice that the matter is really not of so much importance as you appear to imagine, because it is provided that in all cases, as a matter of course, an appeal will lie from the Summary to the Supreme Court, Yours faithfully, W. T.
